

Larry A. Valero, Ph.D.

Director, National Security Studies Institute
An Intelligence Community Center for Academic Excellence (IC CAE)

The University of Texas at El Paso
500 W. University Avenue, Kelly 218
El Paso, Texas 79968-0703

Telephone: (915) 747-5865
Fax: (915) 747-8504
Email: lavalero2@utep.edu

Education

Ph.D., International History, University of Cambridge 2002
M.A., War Studies, King's College London 1996
B.A., Political Science, University of California, Los Angeles 1990

Experience

Associate Professor of Security Studies 2008 to present
Intelligence and National Security Studies Program
The University of Texas at El Paso

Assistant Professor of National Security Studies 2006-2008
Department of International Security and Military Studies
U.S. Air Command and Staff College

Lecturer in Intelligence and International History (U.S. Assistant Professor Equivalent) 2003-2006
Politics and Contemporary History Subject Group
University of Salford (UK)

Faculty Teaching Fellow Summer 2000
Department of History
Indiana University, Bloomington

Other Scholarly Experience:

Scholar in Residence 2005-2006
Center for Cryptologic History
National Security Agency

Scholar in Residence April 2006
Pilot Center for Academic Excellence in Intelligence Studies
Tennessee State University

Visiting Researcher 1998-1999
National Security Studies Program
Georgetown University

Professional Experience:

Military Analyst 2002
Science Applications International Corporation

Graduate Student Summer Associate 2001
Project Air Force Strategy & Doctrine Program
RAND

Relevant Professional and Scholarly Activities

Journals Published: Cryptologic Quarterly, Intelligence and National Security, International Journal of Intelligence and Counterintelligence, and Studies in Intelligence

Major Conference Presentations: International Studies Association, Society for Military History, Society for Historians of American Foreign Relations, Symposium on Cryptologic History, and the American Historical Association

Awards and Honors: International Association for Intelligence Education Outstanding Instructor Award, British Academy Overseas Conference Grant, British International Studies Association Research Award, Society for Historians of American Foreign Relations Travel Grant for Minority Students, Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt Research Grant, and the Association of Former Intelligence Officers' Lieutenant Genera; Eugene F. Tighe, Jr. Memorial Scholarship

Management: Experienced academic administrator responsible for the management of an autonomous university institute within the College of Liberal Arts, including multiple graduate and undergraduate degrees/certificates, over 400 graduate and undergraduate students, 7 permanent faculty/staff, nearly two dozen adjunct instructors, and an annual operating budget in excess of $526,000

Recent Courses Taught: Seminar in Intelligence and National Security, U.S. Intelligence and National Security Policy Structure, and Process, Introduction to Intelligence Analysis, Open Source Intelligence Analysis, Propaganda and Influence Operations, Intelligence and Counterterrorism, Intelligence and Counterproliferation, Counterintelligence and Security, Selected Problems in Intelligence, Capstone, Thesis, Leadership in Complex Organizations

Professional Development: Approaches to Analytic Writing Workshop (Defense Intelligence Agency), Critical Thinking and Structured Analysis Workshop for CAE Professors (Defense Intelligence Agency), "Defending Democracy, Defeating Terrorism" Academic Fellowship (Foundation for the Defense of Democracies), Center for Homeland Defense and Security Faculty Development Workshop (Naval Postgraduate School), Institute for International Public Policy Faculty Fellowship (United Negro College Fund Special Programs), Cross-Cultural Communications Course (USAF Special Operations School), Summer Workshop on Teaching about Terrorism (University of Georgia), Public Policy and Biological Threats: Training the Next Generation (University of California, San Diego), Teaching Nonproliferation Summer Institute: Integrating Science and Technology in the Study of Weapons of Mass Destruction (Washington and Lee University), Teachers' Workshop of the Center for Strategic Education (Johns Hopkins University), West Point Summer Seminar in Military History (U.S. Military Academy), Summer Workshop on Analysis of Military Operations and Strategy (Columbia University)

Professional Service: Faculty Evaluator for Military Programs (American Council on Education), Board of Directors (International Association for Intelligence Education), Book Proposal Referee for Routledge Publishers, Polity Press, Praeger, Publishers, and Manchester University Press, Article Referee for Intelligence and National Security and The Historical Journal

Community Service: Citizens' Academy (Federal Bureau of Investigation), Urban Areas Security Initiative (El Paso Red Cross)

Funding in Areas of Interest in the Past 5 Years

Principal Investigator for the Intelligence Community Centers for Academic Excellence (IC CAE) grant managed by the Defense Intelligence Agency - $1.86 million awarded

Project Leader for the development of an online Bachelor of Arts in Security Studies sponsored by the Department of Homeland Security - $43,000 awarded

Principal Investigator for the Strategic Conversions and Expansions Distance Education Efforts Request for Proposals to develop an online Master of Defense and Strategic Studies sponsored by the Office of the Provost, The University of Texas at El Paso - $40,000 awarded

Principal Investigator for the Postdoctoral Fellowships for Teaching Excellence and Innovation Request for Proposals to mentor a Postdoctoral Teaching Fellow in Security Studies sponsored by the Office of the Provost, The University of Texas at El Paso - $96,000 awarded

Collaborators

Dissertation Advisor: Professor Christopher Andrew, University of Cambridge

Supervised: 1 Postdoctoral Fellow, 1 Ph.D. dissertation, and approximately 45 master's theses and capstone projects.