 - I lead the committee to develop and expresses faculty viewpoints with respect to academic freedom, responsibility, and ethics. This committee, upon the request of the President, advise in the selection of Hearing Tribunals and/or to conduct such hearings or inquiries in accordance with the provision of Handbook and conciliate complaints and make recommendations to the President in matters of academic freedom, responsibility, and ethics. The committee hears impeachment charges and make recommendations to the Senate in cases arising under the Bylaws. The committee develops and express Faculty viewpoints with respect to matters concerning the welfare of individual Faculty members and their immediate families, including, the adequacy of physical facilities, working conditions, compensation, and fringe benefits, and we maintain continuing scrutiny of the Faculty Section of HOOP.
- Administrative Fellow – Dean’s Fall 2022 Admin Fellow, COBA

- I organized COBA Junior Faculty Development Workshop to inform, inspire, and support junior faculty to help succeed in their tenure process and academic career. This workshop also aimed to enhance faculty research and engagement within the College and University. The workshop involved panel discussion on all tenure-related and career-related questions and concerns from the perspective of Dean's office, respective department chairs, and recently tenured faculty members.
- I initiated and currently leading COBA Faculty Engagement survey with the purpose to assess and support faculty engagement and satisfaction. This survey will measure the level of various work-related attitudes. The findings shall allow the college leadership (Dean's office and department chairs) to design programs and offer tailor-made support to improve faculty satisfaction and performance.
- Coordinator – AOL committee on MGMT 5311 (PMBA and EMBA), MMSC
